Holiday/Christmas Market

Free Surrey Rides for the Public Thanks to our Patrons

Thank you to the patrons that have shopped in the Englewood Arts District. One penny from each dollar spent, paid in sales tax, comes back to our community, and we are spending some of those pennies with Ralph of Pioneer Trails Adventures, from the Square, for Free Rides to the public. We are asking for a food donation of a non-perishable, dry or canned good for the less fortunate this Holiday Season, we will be donating to Northern Blvd. United Methodist Church which passes out food w/Ruth's Pantry on Thursdays 5:30-7:30 pm. This Month we will have 2 pick up and drop off points, pick up on the North side of the street were Harvard runs to the south (usual place) and we are going to drop you off at Nirvana Coffee Bar & Game Lounge, one of our newest businesses here in the Arts District. Plenty of things for you to do and see. There will be a band Jem Razz listen to some smooth sounds while you play a game, coffee, and warm drinks to purchase, and they can even be spiked now! Nirvana received their liquor license in November. They will also have available Indian food for dinner; Butter Chicken, Naan and Pulao rice. Outside a firepit and some cooking of Smore's. Catch your ride back up to Harvard.
