ES Express Newsletter

The first ES Express newsletter was written in September 2013. Thank you for reading these newsletter each month. This will be the last ES Express newsletter as Microsoft Publisher will no longer be supported. I have tried, when I had a computer down, to make the newsletter just on word. It took too much time. I do not want to find, buy, and learn a new newsletter publishing application. Thank you for all the feedback over the years, Your editor, Kara Paris. Keep up with us on Social Media.
